Denise Dimon, Ph.D.
“Regionalization in Latin America and the Role of the U.S. & E.U.”
November 29, 2005

Dr. Denise Dimon is Director of the Ahlers Center for International Business and the International MBA Program at the University of San Diego.

She currently serves as the Executive Secretary of the Business Association of Latin American Studies (BALAS) coordinating various aspects of the organization’s foci on business and economic environments of Latin America.

She obtained a Ph.D. and M.S. in Economics from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and a Masters in International Management from the University of Denver.

Dr. Dimon has been a Fulbright Scholar in Argentina and Uruguay, a Distinguished Visiting Professor at the Graduate School of Business Administration and Leadership of the Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey (EGADE-ITESM), Monterrey, México, a Visiting Professor at ESC Reims, France, and Universite Robert Schuman, ICES, Strasbourg, France and at institutions in Brazil, Spain, Italy, China, Germany, The Czech Republic and others.

Her current areas of research and teaching include topics in international economics and business, globalization and regionalization on management and labor.

She was selected Woman of the Year by the Women in International Trade (WIT, San Diego) and recognized as one of the Top 25 Outstanding Women Business Leaders in San Diego by The San Diego Business Journal.